STANLEY OKUMU

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY STUDENT | ICT SUPPORT

Nairobi, Kenya | 0708 075 737 | okumustanley92@gmail.com

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Motivated Diploma in Information Technology student at St. Paul's University, currently in the fourth semester and expected to complete studies in 2027. Gaining practical ICT experience in computer troubleshooting, network connectivity, printer diagnosis, and basic system security. Reliable, detail-oriented, and eager to support users, maintain accurate records, and develop further skills in IT support, networking, and cybersecurity.

EDUCATION

Diploma in Information Technology | St. Paul's University, Nairobi
Fourth semester | Expected completion: 2027

PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE

ICT Attachment | General Post Office (GPO), Nairobi
Practical exposure and learning

- Assisted with basic computer troubleshooting and routine system checks.
- Learned to test Ethernet cables and troubleshoot network connectivity issues.
- Observed and practised basic printer network diagnosis.
- Reviewed Windows Security settings, antivirus protection, and the importance of system updates.
- Learned user-account management principles, password security, and safe handling of information.

Academic Project – Student Clearance Management System

- Worked on an information system project involving digital records, database concepts, and user access.
- Developed experience in organizing project requirements and completing tasks to meet deadlines.

TECHNICAL SKILLS

- Computer setup, basic troubleshooting, and system checks
- Basic networking: Ethernet cable testing and connectivity troubleshooting
- Printer and peripheral troubleshooting
- Windows Security awareness, password security, and user-account principles
- Data entry, digital record management, and database fundamentals
- Microsoft Office and general computer literacy
- Basic web-development and information-system project concepts

PROFESSIONAL SKILLS

- Communication and customer service
- Problem-solving and attention to detail
- Teamwork, time management, and organization
- Integrity and confidential handling of information
- Ability to learn quickly and work with minimal supervision

LANGUAGES

English | Kiswahili | Luo